Ethiopian-American and Eritrean-American Community Meet & Greet with Senator Alex Padilla

- Senator Alex Padilla pulled out of the “Ethiopian-American and Eritrean-American Community Meet and Greet with Alex Padilla” zoom event the last minute, which was slated for October 11, 2021. However, over 250 Ethiopians and Eritreans discussed current events in the Horn of Africa and voting strategies in the mid-term elections of 2022. Journalist Hermela Aregawi, an Ethiopian of Tigrayan descent, and Simon Tesfamariam, an Eritrean was among the presenters.

- The Eritrean Community Center in Washington, DC, held a successful seminar on October 31, 2021. Mr. Berhane G. Solomon, Chargé d'Affaires of the State of Eritrea, conducted the seminar on the current events in the Horn of Africa.

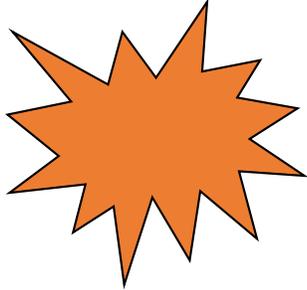

SUCCESSFUL ELECTIONS

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.

The Seattle Public Diplomacy Group in Washington State participated in various election activities. First, they visited with the then mayoral candidate, Mr. Bruce Harrell, now mayor-elect of Seattle. Next, the Group gathered at the Eritrean Community Center and volunteered in phone banking, calling citizens to vote for Mr. Harrell's candidacy. They made over two-hundred calls.
